

"When You Think of Me"

In Loving Memory of Nekole Lunett "Pokey" Livingston Bennett
May 2, 1972 – August 6, 2025

When you think of me tomorrow,
And the tears begin to fall,
Please remember I'm not gone—
I'm just answering God's call.

The storms of life have quieted now,
The pain has slipped away,
I'm resting in His perfect peace,
Where night is changed to day.

Don't grieve too long for
what you've lost,
Rejoice for what I've gained—
A crown, a robe, a mansion bright,
Where love and joy remain.

Think of holidays and laughter,
The meals we loved to share,
My potato salad, Sunday talks,
And how I showed I cared.

Remember how I loved my work,
The friends I made each day,
The kindness given from my heart,
In every small, sweet way.

I've set my eyes on Heaven's shore,
Where beauty knows no end—
And though I'm far from where you stand,
I'm closer than the wind.

For every time you speak my name,
I'll be right by your side;
In every smile, in every song,
In every tear you hide.

So live your life with faith and hope,
Keep dancing, laugh, and sing —
For one day we will meet again
In Heaven with our King.

And when you see
me standing there,
With open arms so wide,
We'll know the wait was worth it all —
Forever side by side.

THE FAMILY'S MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

The Family of Nekole Lunett Livingston Bennett, our Pokey, wishes to express their deepest appreciation and sincere gratitude to those who have offered their prayers, support, and well wishes during our time of bereavement. Thank you for your love, along with the strength of God, which helped to sustain us through our sorrow. May God continue to bless each of you is our prayer!

We take comfort in 1 Corinthians 2:9 ...
"Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love Him."
~The Bennett-Livingston Family

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for the trust you have placed in us during the Homegoing Services of your loved one. Our fervent hope is that all measures of assistance rendered your family have been completed in detail. For all your confidence placed in our staff and me, we would be forever grateful.

LIFE STORY

Nekole Lunett Livingston Bennett
May 2, 1972 – August 6, 2025
“Pokey”

“Yea, Though I Walk Through the Valley of the Shadow of Death,
I Will Fear No Evil, For Thou Art With Me”
~Psalm 23:4

Nekole Lunett Livingston Bennett, the beloved daughter of James Lee Livingston and Beulah Mae Arnold Livingston, was born on May 2, 1972, in Thomasville, Georgia. Affectionately known as “Pokey,” she was reared by her parents and was nurtured by her village of extended family members in her Greenville, Florida community. She resided in this area for most of her life.

The most important decisions Nekole made early in life included her professing her belief in Jesus Christ as her Savior and being baptized by faith. She then chose Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church of Greenville for her lifelong membership.

Nekole achieved her high school diploma from Madison County High School in the Class of 1990. For proper care of her patients, she earned her certification as a Certified Nurse Assistant (C.N.A.). She was gainfully employed at Greenville Nursing and Rehabilitation Center for many years.

Nekole was warm and loving. Not only did she make those around her feel at ease, but she was also connected with the residents on her job and anybody else she encountered.

Nekole truly loved her family. She also loved the memorable times they shared – visiting during the holidays, checking on each other, or calling to share the high points of each other’s day. She was also the typical loving grandmother who was available to spend quality time with her grandchildren and to spoil them as much as possible.

Nekole found many pleasures in life. She enjoyed cooking; her meals were always delicious, but her family all agreed that her potato salad was the absolute best and definitely her claim to fame. At the end of her busy day, however, she enjoyed settling down to read an enjoyable book.

Then, as often as she could, Nekole made cruise plans for the tropical paradise in the Caribbean. She especially enjoyed the atmosphere created on cruise ships for family, fellowship, food, and fun (and of course, lots of dancing).

On Wednesday, August 6, 2025, God freed Nekole Lunett Livingston Bennett of her pain and suffering. “The storms kept on raging in my life, but I kept my eyes on the distant shore.” She gently closed her eyes and transitioned to her eternal rest, safe in the arms of the Lord.

Holding close to their hearts are forever memories of Nekole Lunett Livingston Bennett. Those who will bind these memories together as family are her parents: James Lee Livingston and Beulah Mae Arnold Livingston of Greenville, FL; husband: Maurice Germaine Bennett of Madison, FL; sons: Cantrell Davis of Greenville, FL, Sha’von Washington (Sidnie Rambo) of Madison, FL, Devandre Washington (Joslyn Cooper) of Valdosta, GA, Jaylin Bennett of Madison, FL, Maurice Bennett, Jr. of Akron, OH, and Antonio Livingston, Jr. of Madison, FL; daughters: NyKerria Bennett of Madison, FL and Jayla Jones of Valdosta, GA; brothers: Antonio Livingston and Shawn Livingston of Greenville, FL, Rev. Clyde Swann, Jr. of Tallahassee, FL, William (Kimberly) Terry of Quitman, GA, Gregory Jefferson of Tampa, FL, and Deonte Kee of Orlando, FL; sisters: Tori Washington, Barbara (Anthony) McDonald, and Osha Arnold, all of Greenville, FL; caregiver with the close bond of a sister: Katina Young of Greenville, FL; nine much-loved grandchildren; a host of other sorrowing relatives, caring friends, and comforting coworkers.
