LIFE STORY

DEACON LORINZO BLUE

March 20, 1956 - August 17, 2025

"BLUE BOY"

*"If I Can Help Somebody as I Pass Along,
Then My Living Shall Not Be in Vain"*

DEACON LORINZO BLUE, the beloved son of Archie Blue, Jr. and Mary Louise Sutton Blue, was born on March 20, 1956, in Monticello, Florida, but he grew up in the Sirmans Community of Greenville, Florida. However, his parents allowed him to be raised in the loving home of his Great Uncle Archie Blue, Sr. and Great Aunt Deanna Blue. They, together with his village, instilled in him a foundation that shaped his character and guided the course of his life. They taught him core principles of morals, values, and respect. They stressed the importance of loving and keeping God first in his life, as well as having a strong work ethic. Lorinzo was a lifelong resident of this Madison County community.

Affectionately known by many as "Blue Boy," Lorinzo was a people person who treated everyone as friends. His basic rule was, "If you want to have a friend, you must first be a friend." He impressed those he met with his friendliness, kindness, and generosity. However, his willingness to lend a hand to others and his sense of community was extended to all.

Deacon Blue was committed to his faith and was a devoted church member who demonstrated his leadership potential. He was initially chosen and ordained a deacon at Wigginsville Baptist Church and continued in that role when he transferred his membership to Sweet Home Baptist Church in Perry, Florida.

"FOREVER MY LOVE"

From Your Wife, Lesia R. McGrew Blue

For thirty-nine years,
My heart has walked with yours,
Through valleys low and mountain shores.
Hand in hand, we built a life,
Through joy and trials, as husband and wife.
Your laughter was my morning song,
Your strength the place I leaned upon.
Through every season, love held true,
My soul forever tied to you.
Though Heaven called, love has not died,
I feel you still here by my side.
And when the night feels dark and long,
Your memory sings my spirit strong.
So rest, my love, in God's embrace,
Until I see your smiling face.
No measure of time can ever remove,
The bond we share, the depth of our love.
With all my heart, until we meet again.

A MOTHER'S LOVE ETERNAL

From Your Mother, Mary Louise Sutton Blue

My son, my heart, my shining light,
God lent you to me for a time so bright.
From the day I held you close and near,
I knew my purpose was crystal clear.
I watched you grow in faith and grace,
Strength and kindness upon your face.
Through every step, through joy and pain,
You honored God, you blessed our name.
Though my arms can't hold you now,
I lift my heart to Heaven's vow.
For in God's care, you safely rest,
My child, my love, my very best.
Sleep well, my son, your race is won,
You've heard the Master say, "Well done."
And when my journey here is through,
I'll walk once more in Heaven with you.

"DADDY, OUR HERO"

From Your Children

Daddy, you were our first teacher,
our protector, and our guide,
A steady hand, a gentle heart,
always walking by our side.
You taught us faith, you taught us love,
you showed us how to stand,
To trust in God with all our hearts,
and hold each other's hand.
Though we will miss your laughter,
your wisdom, and your care,
We'll carry you within us,
in every prayer we share.
Your legacy lives in each of us,
your strength, your love, your name,
And though our lives feel different now,
they'll never be the same.
Rest, Daddy, in Heaven's peace,
your work on earth is through,
But every day we'll honor you,
in all we say and do.

Forever loved by your sons:

William (Tra'Jae), Michael, Dr. Brandon (Brittany), Antione, and "Broderick"

And your daughters:

Teralissa, Symia, Na'Casey, Avianna, and Ashley.

"TO MY BELOVED FAMILY"

From "Blue Boy"

Though my seat at the table is empty,
my love for you will never fade.
Carry my lessons, my laughter, my prayers—
for they are the treasures I leave behind.
When the days feel heavy,
look toward Heaven's light,
and know that I am near,
smiling, watching, guiding—
until we meet again.
