

Nancy Lee Speaks

Nancy was born April 21, 1952, in Webster, South Dakota to Sherman "Pete" Arnold and Patricia (Glad) Johnson. She was raised in Roslyn, South Dakota where she graduated from Roslyn High School in 1970.

After graduating high school, she moved to Minneapolis where she met and married her husband, Hugh Speaks. Nancy made her way to the Black Hills to be closer to family after losing the love of her life to cancer. She owned and operated the Slash J Bar and Grill for several years until she semi-retired in Piedmont.

Nancy Lee Speaks, 61, Piedmont, died Friday, February 28, 2014 at her home.

Nancy is survived by her sisters, Linda (Scott) Ward, Piedmont, and Barbara Pogulis, Minneapolis, MN; uncle, Richard Glad, Roslyn, SD; and several nieces and nephews, Michelle, Eric, Brandon, Cody, Tom, and Karina.

She is preceded in death by her parents, and her husband.

A memorial has been established.

Condolences may be sent to the family at kinkadefunerals.com

We thank you for your presence and condolences.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys --
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief --
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee --
God wanted me now: He set me free.
